

EXPERT EVIDENCE

ON MODULAR EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM PROSPECTING AND EXPLORATION OF CRITICAL METALS FOR THE PREPARATION OF PROFILE MASTERS ON SPECIALTY 6M070600 - "GEOLOGY AND EXPLORATION OF MINERAL DEPOSITS" WITHIN THE FRAMEWORK OF TRAINING ON THE SPIID -2.

The educational program for profile preparation Master students on specialty 6M070600 "Geology and exploration of mineral deposits " in the framework of SPIID -2 was developed at the departments "Geology and Mining" and " Geodesy, cartography and cadastre " D.Serikbaev East Kazakhstan State Technical University in accordance with the long-term priorities of the Strategy "Kazakhstan-2050" on the implementation of the key areas of "Accelerating economic diversification" Strategic Plan of Development of Kazakhstan till 2020.

Requirements for qualification and competence of specialists who will take place at the enterprises of mining and metallurgical complex are determined by the interest of potential employers, university potential, state requirements and society in general.

This program intended for 1.5 years of study.

The content of the modular education program focused on improving the approach to the development of the basic professional competencies of students and modern criteria of quality assessment of students' knowledge.

The main purpose of the educational program - preparation of highly skilled, collect specialists on the labor market for the mining and metallurgical sector of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Modular educational training program of profile Masters in "Prospecting and exploration of critical metals" complies with the requirements training highly qualified specialists for the mining and metallurgical enterprises and recommended for implementation in the educational process.

Prof. Dr. Reimar Seltmann
Head of Centre for Russian and Central EurAsian Mineral Studies
Natural History Museum, Cromwell Road, London SW7 5BD, U.K.

