

Statute
of the Board of Young Scientists of D. Serikbayev East Kazakhstan State
Technical University

1. General statute

1. Standing Boards of Young Scientists in scientific organizations and higher education Institutions are founded to attract young scientists to solving science and technology development and republic scientific potential development problems; effectiveness increase of young scientists' problems solving and attraction young scientists themselves to solving problems.
2. Scientific workers, trainee-researches, master and doctoral students, lecturers involved into scientific activity and under the age of 35 are acknowledged to be young scientists.
3. The Board of Young Scientists of D. Serikbayev East Kazakhstan State Technical University is the main unit of the system of scientific youth Board.
4. The Board is a public body in scientific organization or higher education Institution management.
5. Administration of the University is responsible for The Board of Young Scientists of D. Serikbayev East Kazakhstan State Technical University forming and coordination of its activity.
6. Objectives of the Board:
  - assistance to professional growth of scientific youth, to its active participation in fundamental and applied researches;
  - performing the role of a representative body and protection of the rights of scientific youth in the Academic Board and before administration of D.Serikbayev EKSTU , and also at the state and public organizations, expression of opinion of scientific youth on various aspects of professional work and social conditions of life;
  - association of efforts of young scientists for the decision making in the areas of actual scientific problems and priority scientific problems;
  - activization of scientific and research work of young scientists through system of specially developed actions;
  - improvement of young scientists participation in research projects, scientific grant contests, competitions, programs, training;
  - formation and expansion of a network of contacts to Boards of other scientific organizations, higher educational institutions.

7. Functions of the Board

1. the organization of conferences, seminars and meetings of young scientists, a series of lectures of leading scientists, assistance and financial support for young scientists to participate in republic and international conferences and seminars, symposiums, training;
2. informing young scientists about funds, grants, conferences, competitions and other events in the Republic of Kazakhstan, bordering countries and far abroad, about measures of the state support of the young scientific staff in Republic of Kazakhstan;
3. gathering and ordering the information for young scientists on both domestic and foreign funding and the programs rendering grant support to young scientists;
4. contribution to young scientists publications, rendering methodical, organizational and material support;
5. the organization of joint research projects among young scientists of Kazakhstan, foreign higher educational institutions and centers of science;
6. assistance to access to the expensive equipment by youth collectives, the organization of master-classes in modern methods of work on the newest equipment;
7. creation of a databank of the young scientists who have left abroad. Establishing contacts with them for the purpose of carrying out a teamwork;
8. search of solutions for scientists housing and other social problems of the youth working at D.Serikbayev EKSTU;
9. preparation and holding sports and cultural events.

8. Rights of the Board

1. To perform its functions the Board has the right:
  - 1) to prepare proposals on all points concerning the Board work on improvement of material and technical supply of young scientists scientific activity;
  - 2) to participate in preparation and expertise of documents and normative legal acts concerned scientific youth's problems;
  - 3) to make proposals about support and financial incentives for certain young scientist for success achieved;
  - 4) propose young scientists for participation in scientific conferences, workshops, symposiums, etc.;
  - 5) to organize sports and cultural events with the participation of young scientists.

9. Организационные принципы деятельности Совета Organizational principles of Board activity

2. The Board consists of young scientists of D. Serikbayev East Kazakhstan State Technical University, participating voluntarily. Chairman of the Board organizes Board activity and represents young scientists' interests.

10. Chairman of the Board can be elected from the number of scientific workers under the age of 35 at the moment of election for a term of three years by open or secret vote.

11. Chairman of the Board is a member of Academic Board of the University.

12. The Board works on the basis of annual working plan. The Board prepares annual report for Board general meeting and University Academic Board.